

PREPARING FOR RICH CONTEST

Students of Weber and High to Compete for Annual Prize

Students of the Ogden high school and the Weber Normal college are preparing for the annual Dr. Edward Rich oratorical contest, which will be held April 9. More than fifty students are expected to enter the contest, which will be held at the school next week, while a like number of students at Weber Normal college are getting ready for similar contests. Three representatives from each of the schools will take part in the event.

The contest is staged yearly, prizes of $15 for first place and $15 for second place being awarded by Dr. Rich. Last year Miss Ruth Scowcroft of Weber won first honors while Hillard Wherry of Ogden high won second place.

The place for the holding of the annual contest has as yet not been decided upon. It is very probable that the contest will be held at the Ogden auditorium. In past years the contest has been held at the tabernacle.

Judges will be named next week for the contest. Representatives of the two schools, on account of the time limit in the competition, it is very probable that three prizes will be awarded this year instead of two.

Dr. Rich, a member of the city board of education, celebrates his birthday every year on April 9 by awarding the prizes for the best orators developed at the local schools.

PASTOR TALKS TO BOY SCOUT TROOP

Speaking on "Wrestling" to the Boy Scouts of Troop 20 last evening at the First Methodist church, the pastor, Rev. Hugh Neville, referred to Paul as an athlete, or at least one who was familiar with the ancient Greek games, for he frequently likens the Christian experience to a "race," a "contest," a "battle" or a "wrestling match." The pastor said: "The conflict of the Savior with the evil one in the desert is repeated in every life in some measure. There is a trinity of evil, the world, the flesh, and the devil, which is forever seeking to lure man away from God and destroy him body and soul."

"We wrestle," says Paul, "not against flesh and blood, but against the spiritual hosts of wickedness, those organized and unorganized forces of evil whose aim is the exploitation and degradation of human lives, who in their nefarious traffic in human bodies and souls do not respect even the tender years of youth or the weakness of old age."

"The Christian and the Christian church cannot compromise with evil in any form. They do so at infinite peril to themselves and others who are looking to them as examples of life. We are forever antagonistic to all the forces of evil, the liquor traffic, gambling, white slave traffic, greed, lust, selfishness and every other form of vice, in the exercise of which the bodies and souls of human beings are destroyed. While we are forever on the side of all organizations, such as Boy Scouts, and any other whose aim is the protection, saving, and development of human life and the making of this world a better, cleaner, safer place in which to live."

Tonight the pastor will speak on "Profit and Loss in the Business of Life." The Men's club will be given the place of honor. All men are cordially invited to be present. Miss Elsie Hughes of Salt Lake will give a reading, entitled "The Miser."

MINERS STILL FACE OTHER INDICTMENTS

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., March 22.—Police Chief Sid Hatfield and fifteen other Matewan residents found not guilty of connection with the death of Albert C. Felts, a detective, last night. The jury, however, returned indictments still remain against the sixteen men freed, one each in connection with the death of six detectives, who fell with Felts during the Matewan battle, and the court announced that the next trial would be held April 12.

Shortly after the verdict was announced, Wade Bronson, prosecuting attorney of Mingo county, resigned effective April 1. Mr. Bronson said that the salary was insufficient to maintain his family. S. D. Stokes, city solicitor of Williamson, was named to succeed Mr. Bronson.

ARTIST WINS SUIT TO COMPEL EXHIBITION

NEW YORK, March 22.—Art marched into court Monday and won. Supreme Court Justice Newberger was asked to consider an application by Charles C. Rumsey—sculptor, polo player and son-in-law of Mrs. E. H. Harriman—for an order directing the Architectural League of New York to show cause why it should not be required to place a statue by Rumsey, "The Pagan," on exhibition at its annual show next month. The court considered and issued the order.

OCCUPANTS OF CAR ARRESTED

Passengers of Mudrow Car
Held to Answer Before
Court

Joseph P. Pezeley, miner of Standardville, who was an occupant of an automobile owned by George Mudrow of Salt Lake, when it crashed into a car driven by Horace Brough of Bountiful at "death curve," near Riverdale, several weeks ago, was arrested Sunday in Price and brought to Ogden last night and placed in the county jail. Pezeley left for Price following the accident and worked there until his arrest Sunday. He will appear before the city court Thursday with George Moore and B. J. Martin to answer to charges of reckless driving.

Although Pezeley was not driving the car when it struck the Brough machine, County Attorney David J. Wilcox holds him responsible as well as the other occupants. Pezeley declares he was in the rear seat of the machine at the time of the accident and when the car crashed into the telephone pole, he was thrown forward and struck the front of the car, which included Mrs. Mudrow and another woman, in the back of the head, and the car was badly wrecked. The car driven by Brough was damaged, but its occupants also escaped with minor injuries.

The case is attracting widespread interest, inasmuch as persons who were in the car, but not driving, are held to answer charges of reckless driving, as well as the pilot of the car.
